.....

The world of drinks is diverse!
If you don't find exactly the drink
you are looking for in our menu,
we will be happy to advise you
on alternative beers, wines, cocktails
and non-alcoholic drinks.
We can of course also mix you a cocktail
just the way you want it.

SINGLE MALT SCOTCH WHISKY

ISLAY

Islay is the most famous of the Scottish whisky islands. She is often referred to as the queen among them. The majority of Islay's single malts have a wonderfully peaty-smoky, strong taste – aromas for which Islay whisky is so loved.

LOWLANDS

The single malts of the Lowlands are lighter than those of the Highlands and are strongly reminiscent of their Irish brothers in taste, as they are often distilled three times like them. They are generally very fresh and gentle, have floral, herb-scented or fruity aromas and taste dry in the finish.

AUCHENTOSHAN THREE WOOD	4cl   €9.5
AUCHENTOSHAN 12yr	4cl   €8.5
GLENKINCHIE 12yr	4cl   €8.5

IRISH WHISKEY

Irish whiskey gets its special taste mainly from the use of a mixture of unmalted and malted barley, which is not fired over a peat fire. In addition, Irish whiskey is distilled two or three times in the relatively large stills of whiskey distilleries

AMERICAN WHISKEY

STRAIGHT BOURBON

Bourbon is a variant of American whiskey originally distilled only in Kentucky. It is produced as a distillate of a grain mixture with at least 51% maize, in addition to which it usually contains rye or barley.
